DEDICATION

A black and white photograph of a large, modern school building with a flat roof and several tall, narrow windows. The building is light-colored, possibly concrete or stone. In the foreground, there are dark, leafy bushes and a utility pole with wires. The sky is overcast.

This annual is dedicated to Old Hampton High School by a grateful student body in recognition of thirty-six years of distinguished service to our community.

In the 1953 edition of the Krabba our purpose is to give you a picture of our final year at Hampton High School. The graduating Seniors are going on to greater goals and achievements while the Juniors and Sophomores are going to further their education in the new high school.

In future years when you thumb through these pages, we hope they will bring many cherished memories of these years at Old Hampton High.

Special Events

Jeanette Patton performed her expected duties for vacationing Richard Wood during Twirp Week.

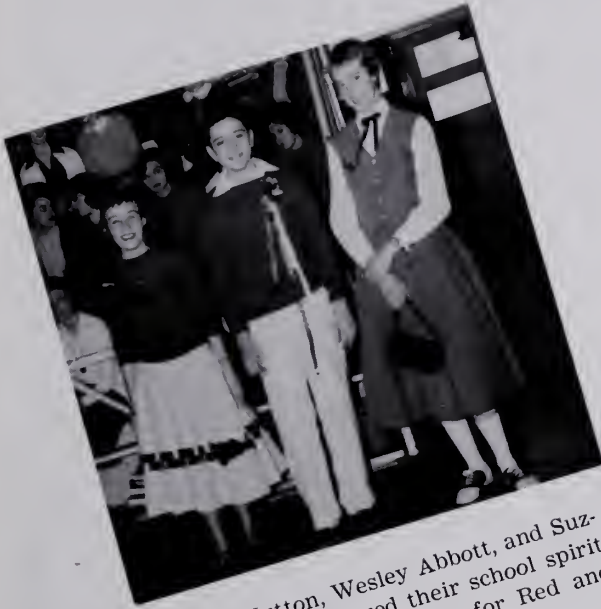

Martha Goding and Duane Davis fix bulletin board display stressing Brotherhood Week.

Students are carrying out principles stressed during Honor Week.

Clean-Up Week got underway with some well-placed action by John Spivey, Linda Hatley, and Rosser Mitchell.

Phyllis Hutton, Wesley Abbott, and Suzanne Kates displayed their school spirit by dressing appropriately for Red and White Day.

Martha Grant sings like a hillbilly at the Turkey Day Pep Rally preceding the Hampton-Newport News game.

Hampton was host to students from Newport News and Warwick high schools in an SCA Federation-sponsored Exchange Student Program. Parent Teachers Association

Diane French, Betsy Croswell, Mrs. Annie Croswell, Elbert L. Carr, Edward Webb, Rene Riley, Annie Jane Andleton, Molly Riggins, a parent, and John W. White-side take part in Registration Night for the parents.

We, of the P. T. A., are proud to have had the opportunity of knowing and working with you, the class of '58, who has already had the distinction of being the last to graduate from this building. We are confident that you will advance more as you go into our interesting, challenging world.

Our prayer would be that these years have served as a stimulus to constant growth and search for the truth. Best wishes for the future.

Mrs. Kathryn Parrish, head of the Mathematics Department, confers with Mrs. Walter Hixon about advancement of the students.

Tommy T. Lawrence, the Band director, informs a group of interested parents of the Band's accomplishments.

Back To School Night

Back To School Night, an annual event, is attended by parents of Hampton High School Students. These parents, by following their teenagers' schedule of classes, are given an opportunity to become acquainted with teachers and subject matter.

In the gym, Arthur S. Letoha emphasizes the importance of a good physical education program.

Physics Teacher, Mrs. Roberta B. Stoney (in middle), explains the fundamentals of physics to parents.

MISS ELSIE GAY LANE

To The Seniors:

As Sophomores and Juniors, you were primarily occupied with the present. As Seniors, you find some sadness in the thought that you will not pass this way again.

We hope that while you were here, you learned to think well and choose wisely for tomorrow you will be the backbone of our strength as a nation.

You leave behind many friends who will always be interested in your happiness.

Prophet, Patsy Mackey; Giftorian, Beverly Jacobson; Last Will and Testament, Sylvia Verdery; Poet, Carol Livingstone; Historian, Chick Kerlin.

Class Day activities are capably handled by our Senior Class Historian, Last Will and Testament Committee, Poet, Giftorian and Prophet.

The Historian has the task of writing the history of our three years at Hampton High School, from the time we entered its hallowed halls in September of 1955 till we sadly leave them in June, 1958.

Our Last Will and Testament, in which we leave a favored desk or teacher to a special friend, is an equally hard job, as, each year there are more and more seniors to graduate.

Poet laureate of Hampton also requires a lot of work, for the class poet tries, with rhyme, to eulogize his or her class for posterity.

The Giftorian attempts with a few words and a small gift from the senior class to show our appreciation to our sponsors, to the school and its faculty for all they have done for us in the past three years.

Our Prophet attempts to visualize what we seniors will be doing about ten years from now. Some are amusing and some are serious but almost all are astonishingly close to the truth.

Thus, you see how enormous a job these hardworking people do to make Class Day a success for you.

Student Relations Council

The aim of the Student Relations Council, organized during the school year of 1955-1956, is to promote better relations and honor at Hampton High School. Students breaking school rules are referred to the council for consultation.

Betsy Wetmore, Judy Detrich, Nell Gracey, and Karen Blake, members of the House Committee, polish the school trophies.

John Severin, Virginia Shaffer, Sally Livingston, and Sally Stevenson, members of the School Spirit Committee, put up a poster to increase enthusiasm.

SCA Federation

The Peninsula SCA Federation is composed of representatives from Hampton, Newport News, and Warwick. The purpose of the Federation is to promote cooperation, fellowship, and understanding among the three high schools on the peninsula.

Each school has equal representation on the Council; and the offices of president, vice-president, and secretary are rotated among the schools.

The Federation sponsors week long projects concurrently in the three schools. This year an exchange program was undertaken.

National Thespian Troupe 300 was chartered in 1935 for students who showed outstanding ability in dramatic arts. By doing work in community or school dramatics a student may accumulate the necessary ten points for membership. The Society, each year, sponsors a play for the Christmas Assembly and Play Night in which the three classes compete.

Mrs. Fay Quinn, teacher and director of dramatics, is the sponsor of the troupe.

HAMPTON HIGH SCHOOL

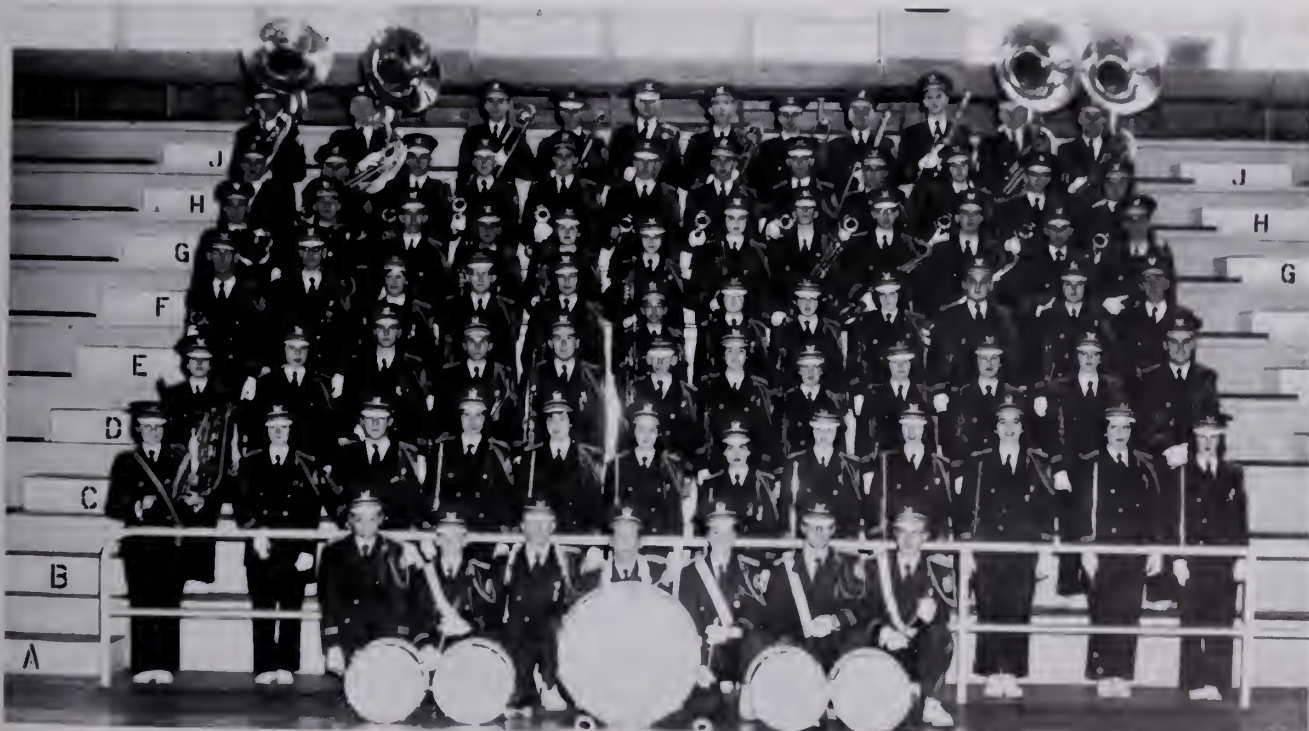

The Hampton High School Band, under the able direction of T. T. Lawrence, has brought much recognition to the school. The Marching Band won a Division One rating for Class A bands in the South Eastern Band Festival and has been invited to perform at a Washington Redskin football game next fall. The Concert Band presented an impressive Christmas Concert, as well as Winter and Spring Concerts, given in February and May. In addition to the Band's other accomplishments, it placed twenty-two members in the All-State Band, the largest number ever selected in the Band's history.

Peninsula Champs

The Red and White closed out a highly successful season by turning a gray Thanksgiving into a black one for Typhoon fans and a bright one for Hamptonians. Reason? Hampton 20 - Newport News 0. With Bud Porter, the brightest star of all, leading the attack, the Crabbers literally ran Newport News off the field. Not only did this even the long series, but it gave us the Peninsula Championship after a three year reign by Warwick.

The Crabbers opened the season with a convincing 39-0 win over Benedictine. This game marked the debut of Jimmy Eason, who on his first play from scrimmage tossed a 41 yard touchdown pass to Bud Porter. Showing a balanced attack, Hampton, led by Danny Bridges, rolled up 245 yards on the ground and another 117 yards in the air.

The following week Hampton traveled to Chester and shut out a stubborn Thomas Dale team 26-0. Bridges scored twice and booted two extra points to boost his total to 23. Jimmy Stout scored the other touchdowns on passes. Keeping their slate clean, the Crabbers rolled over Maury 39-12. This game marked the first touchdowns allowed by the Red and White's rugged defense. For the second straight week Bridges and Stout scored twice. Bridges also converted three extra points to raise his point total to 38.

The Mount Vernon Majors were the next to try their hand at stopping the mighty Red and White. Starting fast, the Majors broke into a 6-0 first quarter lead. But three touchdowns in the second quarter and three more in the last half by the Crabbers dispelled any thoughts of an upset. Richard Nobles

H.H.S. 39 — Benedictine 0
H.H.S. 26 — Chester 0
H.H.S. 39 — Maury 12
H.H.S. 38 — Mt. Vernon 12
H.H.S. 20 — Wilson 20
H.H.S. 40 — Granby 13
H.H.S. 27 — Warwick 13
H.H.S. 7 — Norview 19
H.H.S. 20 — Newport News 0

sparked the attack with two long scoring runs. Bridges, Porter, Ellerson and Edwards also scored for Hampton.

Winners of four straight, the men of "Suey" Eason traveled to Portsmouth to meet undefeated Woodrow Wilson. Because of flu and injuries to key Hampton men, Wilson was rated a heavy favorite at game time. But Hampton made the sportswriters look just as wet as the gridiron by blasting their way to a 20-7 halftime lead. Ellerson, Nobles, and Porter scored for the Red and White and Bridges kicked two extra points. His third try hit the goal post and bounced away. A combination of flu and fumbles aided Wilson to two last quarter touchdowns and enabled the Presidents to pull out with a tie.

Bouncing back from the tie, Hampton ran all over Granby 40-13. Jimmy Eason scored three touchdowns and passed for another to lead the rout of the Blue Comets. Porter, Ellerson, and Bridges scored the other Crabber TD's. Bridges scored 10 points to raise his point total to 58.

Next was the big homecoming game with Warwick. The Farmers started out as if they were going to spoil everything by beating us for the fourth straight year. In fact, they carried a 13-6 lead into the fourth quarter. Then Bud Porter broke loose with two long runs for scores and Eason added another. Final score: H.H.S. 27 - Warwick 13.

Still undefeated, the Crabbers traveled through the new tunnel to Norview to help them celebrate their homecoming. To make a long story short, Norview had a happy homecoming. The fired-up Pilots handed Hampton their first loss 19-7. Danny Bridges provided the only bright spot for Hampton by plunging over for a touchdown and kicking the extra point to stake Hampton to a short lived 7-0 lead.

Then came Thanksgiving and the big win over the Typhoon. Co-captains Bud Porter and Danny Bridges, John Ellerson and Jimmy Stout closed out their high school careers with brilliant performances. Porter scored one touchdown and passed for the others, one to Stout and one to Eason. Bridges kicked two extra points and combined with Stout to tear up the middle of the Typhoon line. Ellerson turned in his usual fine offensive and defensive game.

Dear Jane

. . . . or Mary or Sue. One day truly not too long from now, you will be making homes of your own. In these homes, there will be floors. And on these floors — rugs.

Here's the commercial: remember the Rug Shop when the day arrives.
